

WAYNE HACKETT

was born and raised in California.

He started with dental studies and then his interest turned towards holistic health and education.

In 1977, Wayne met Mary Burmeister who has been his teacher and inspiration since then. He was one of her first students.

Wayne currently lives on in Bonn, Germany, where he keeps studying the Art of Jin Shin and maintains a private practice.

He has been travelling throughout the world presenting the Art of Jin Shin and has a particular fascination for the significance of symbols (numbers) and cosmic geometry (planetary relationships).

PROGRAM of the 3 days

Prerequisite :
1 basic class of 5 days

JIN SHIN FIRST-AID KIT

This three-day seminar will study and practice various Jin Shin actions for use when first-aid is needed.

What does the Art of Jin Shin teach about dealing with accidents and injuries?

What does Jin Shin suggest for burns?
for punctures and abrasions?

If someone may be having a stroke or a heart attack, what can I do until medical help arrives?

Jin Shin's response to these and other first-aid situations will be presented.

Additionally, students will participate in giving and receiving hands-on sessions twice daily.

We invite you to join us!
